John was a prophet; God chose him to tell people that Jesus was coming as their savior. The word baptize comes from the Greek word baptizo, and most Bible scholars agree it means to dip, immerse, or submerge an object or person. John was eccentric – he dressed in camel hair garments and ate locusts and honey.

John was calling the Jews to repent and get ready for the Kingdom of God. For a person to be baptized in John's day was to confess to be as far away from God as a Gentile and that there was a need to "get right" with Him. Jesus had no need of repentance, but He was completely identifying Himself with sinful man.
